

Ring in the Spring

By Poppy & Posie Blossom

Open up the window! Tell me what you see!
Color everywhere I go – the earth is having a party!
Let's skip out the front door and say hello to the sun!
Having you here by my side will make today so fun!

Look!

There are tiny sprouts!

And look!

Baby animals are coming out!

The bees and the breeze begin nature's symphony.

Now it's our turn to join in the melody.

So let's . . .

Ring in the spring together!

I can't think of anything better!

Than spending time in the sunshine

With a friend like you!

So let's dance

And let's sing

And let's ring in the spring!

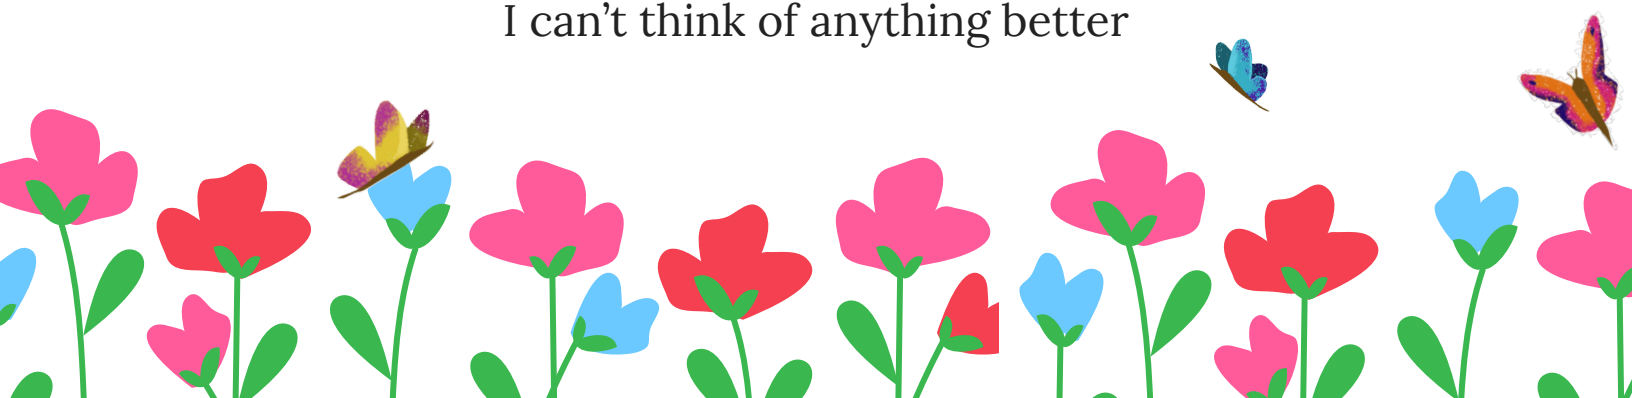

Soon there will be flowers everywhere we go!
And with April showers come rainbows!
We'll go to the park to play on the swings and slides!
We'll have so much fun together rain or shine!

Look!
There are tiny sprouts!
And look!
Baby animals are coming out!
The bees and the breeze begin nature's symphony.
Now it's our turn to join in the melody.

So let's . . .
Ring in the spring together!
I can't think of anything better

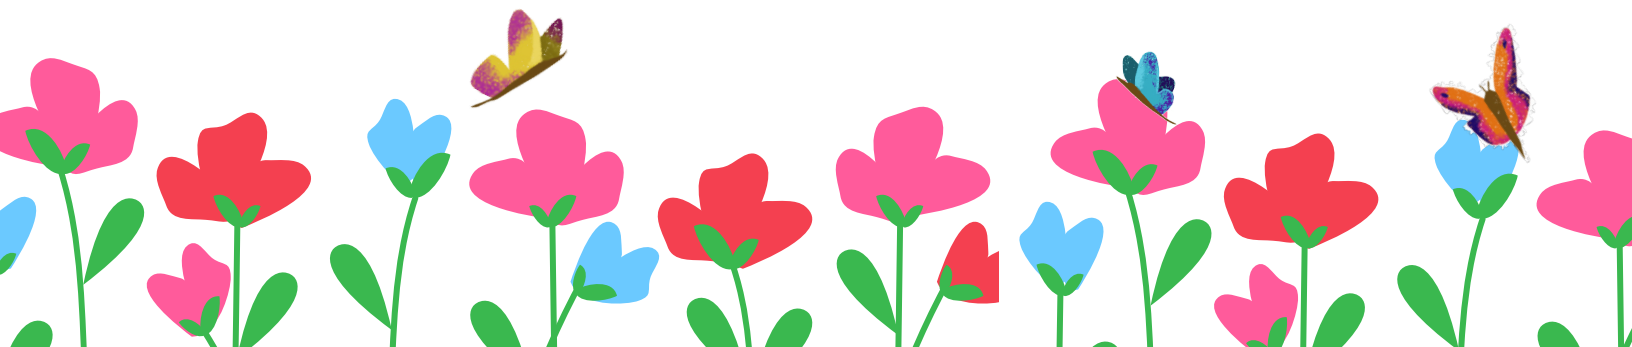

Than spending time in the sunshine
With a friend like you!
So let's dance
And let's sing
And let's ring in the spring!

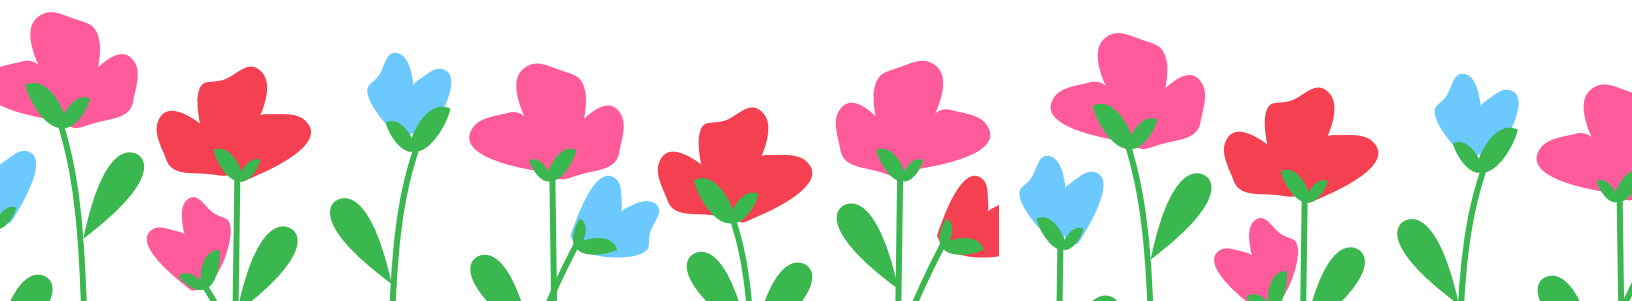

La la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la

So let's . . .
Ring in the spring together!
I can't think of anything better

Than spending time in the sunshine
With a friend like you!
So let's dance
And let's sing
And let's ring in the spring!
